Located in Jiangsu Province in eastern coastal China, Suzhou City is renowned as the 'City of Gardens.' The Suzhou Classical Gardens trace their origin to the Spring and Autumn Period, developed during the Jin and Tang dynasties, flourished in the Song dynasty, and reached its peak in the Ming and Qing dynasties. In 1997 and 2000, nine of them, including the Humble Administrator's Garden, Lingering Garden, Lion Grove Garden, and Master of the Nets Garden, were inscribed on the UNESCO World Heritage List. The Suzhou Classical Gardens are acknowledged as representative works of Chinese garden art, making them one of the hottest tourist destinations in the world.
