

Supplementary material A: Summary of clinical features and education of the patients

No	Age	Race	Sex	Diagnosis	Duration of illness (yrs)	Predominant symptoms	School attended
PT1	36	Caucasian	M	F.20	3	Moderate to severe persecutory delusions and tactile hallucinations.	Deaf primary and secondary (both oral)
PT2	46	Caucasian	M	F.20	20	Forensic patient, had attacked people due to severe persecutory delusions and hallucinations. Possible FTD recorded in casenotes or noted personally at least once.	Deaf primary and secondary (both oral)
PT3	40	Caucasian	M	F.20	15	Long standing severe third person auditory hallucinations and commentary on his actions. Afraid people could hear the voice.	Deaf primary and secondary (both oral)
PT4	45	Caucasian	M	F.20	6	Severe delusional pregnancy which began with a delusional perception, auditory hallucinations of foetus' voice. Possible FTD recorded in casenotes or noted personally at least once.	Deaf primary and secondary (both oral)
PT5	65	Caucasian	F	F.20	42	Chronic mild delusions and moderate auditory hallucinations.	Deaf primary and secondary (both oral)
PT6	38	Caucasian	M	F.20	15	Chronic mild hebephrenic picture, past mild hallucinations and delusions. Possible FTD recorded in casenotes or noted personally at least once.	Deaf primary and secondary (both oral)
PT7	44	Caucasian	M	F.20	25	Moderate to severe, vivid persecutory delusions and hallucinations	Deaf primary and secondary (both oral)
PT8	41	Caucasian	F	F.20	20	Moderate to severe long standing delusions/hallucinations including tactile (e.g. people injecting her with drugs). Possible FTD recorded in casenotes or noted personally at least once.	Deaf primary and secondary (both oral)
PT9	57	Caucasian	F	F.20	35	Chronic illness with mainly residual symptoms.	Deaf primary and secondary (both oral)
PT10	46	Caucasian	F	F.20	2	Moderate to severe persecutory delusions and some delusional memories, also suspected hallucinations	Deaf primary and secondary (both oral)
PT11	33	Caucasian	F	F.20	4	Severe delusions which relapsed postnatally and suspected hallucinations.	Deaf primary and secondary (both oral)
PT12	35	Caucasian	M	F.20	3	Severe delusions (including that people had stolen his face), severe and dangerous hallucinations. Possible FTD recorded in casenotes or noted personally at least once.	Deaf primary and secondary (both oral)
PT13	29	Caucasian	F	F.20	11	Ongoing moderate to severe delusions and mild hallucinations.	Deaf primary and secondary (both oral)
PT14	57	Caucasian	M	F.20 (schizoaffective)	30	Moderate to severe chronic relapsing illness with some affective features . Fixed religious delusions with visual and auditory hallucinations. Possible FTD recorded in casenotes or noted personally at least once.	Deaf (Dublin)