

Supplementary table S2: Inclusion/exclusion criteria

	INCLUSION CRITERIA	EXCLUSION CRITERIA
POPULATION	Adults (male or female) Age >18 Living with the following LTNC: Multiple Sclerosis, Parkinson's disease, Dystonia; Acquired Brain Injury (other than Stroke). Using community rehabilitation and support services.	Any other progressive or non-progressive neurological condition including Stroke. Carers Children
PHENOMENA of INTEREST	The actual experience of using community rehabilitation and support services Generic or condition specific accounts/ experience measures.	Experience of inpatient rehabilitation and/or treatment. Carers' subjective experiences. Professionals' subjective experiences. Studies which exclusively focus on experiences of living with a long term neurological condition.
CONTEXT	Community rehabilitation and support services as defined in Quality requirement 5 of the National Service Framework for Long Term Neurological Conditions [7]. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Delivered in home Delivered in community Outpatient hospital services Services which target issues associated with the activity and participation domains of the ICF [88]. Any geographical location in the world.	Services and Interventions which focus on the domain of impairment of the ICF [88]. Services received whilst the individual is not living in their home or in their place of residence.
TYPES OF STUDIES	Qualitative Interpretative studies, including but not limited to designs such as phenomenology, grounded theory, ethnography, action research. Descriptive qualitative studies or case studies that describe the experience of using community rehab and support services. Studies published between 2005 and 2016 and limited to English language. Studies which meet the Joanna Briggs Quality Standards [70].	Quantitative studies Mixed methods studies